Fire Chief Boyer reports 30 fires during last year, entailing damages to amount of only $1,096 to buildings and $2,742 to contents. At these fires 118 gallons of chemicals were used and $24.75 spent for oil and gas. Cost of minute men was $121.

George Helm of Arcanum was arrested here last week for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, but he being on the verge of a sick spell he was sent to his home by the authorities here.

The store of C. E. Unger at Landis, east of this city, was burglarized during last Sunday night and robbed of $75 to $100 in money. Entrance was effected by cutting out panes of glass in a rear window.

John W. Viets, veteran of the Civil war, who entered the Dayton Soldier's Home recently, died there last Saturday of cancer. His home was at Fort Jefferson, where funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon.

The rains of last week and melting of the snow and ice again put Mud creek and Greenville creek out of their banks, and the adjacent low lands were covered Sunday. The flood was about equal to that of last July.

The eleven-year-old daughter of Henry Weaver, the drayman, died of appendicitis Thursday morning of last week after a prolonged illness. Funeral services were held Saturday and burial made in Greenville cemetery.

The grand jury reported Tuesday afternoon, returning nine indictments, six of which are kept secret until the parties can be placed under arrest. Those made public are George Hughes, arson; Albert Steinhilber, forgery; Hayes Epps, shooting with intent to kill.

Announcements have been received by friends in this city of the marriage, on December 27, 1915, at Lancaster, Ohio, of Hermann K. Balthaser, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Balthaser of this city, and Miss Helen C. Wolf of Lancaster, O. May joy and happiness ever be theirs.

Supt. I. N. Smith's report for 1915 shows there were 134 burials in Greenville cemetery last year. In 1914 there were 146, the largest number for any one year. The total number of burials since April 15, 1884, when Mr. Smith began keeping a record of them, is 2995.

Charles G. Buchy has purchased the city lot on West Third street, adjoining Henry Sellman's, for $3225. Two other bids were received, one from Daniel W. Spidel for $2250 and one from R. H. Davis & Sons for $3165. Mr. Buchy will erect a modern business room on the site in the near future.

Mrs. Susanna Young, 76 years old, died last Friday morning in the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Wagner, Walnut street, this city. She was the wife of Lightner Young, who died a few weeks ago, near Coletown, and she is survived by four children and one sister. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon and burial made in Manuel cemetery, near Coletown.

David H. Bryson, 49 years old, died in his home near Coletown Wednesday morning of last week of lung pneumonia. He was a well-known farmer and was born on the farm on which he resided on March 3, 1866, being a son of the late James Bryson. He leaves his wife, four sons, a daughter, two brothers and a sister. Funeral services were held Friday and burial made in Greenville cemetery.

During 1915 there were 95 births in Greenville, according to statistics compiled by Clerk Karl Schmermund. Of this number 46 were boys and 49 were girls.

In the suit of Mary J. Harmon, executrix, to determine the amount of inheritance tax due from Mary Oglesbee, an heir, the court fixed the amount at $228.31, this being 5 per cent on $4,556.19, which she must pay into the county treasury.

The District Tax Board passed out of existence at midnight of December 31, and now County Auditor Garrison becomes chief taxing officer of this county. This board of review will be named by the 10th of this month.

The sleet storm of the fore part of last week did hundreds of dollars' damage to telephone, telegraph and electric light lines in this vicinity, hundreds of poles were broken down and the traction line put out of business for a part of Wednesday. No freight trains were run on the Panhandle that day and passenger traffic was spasmodic. The Home Telephone Co. was, no doubt, the heaviest loser, especially on its long distance service. Much of the damage has been repaired by this time and things are assuming normal conditions now.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Scarlet Fever. No matter how mild the case of scarlet fever, the patient must be put to bed and kept there for four weeks, for it must not be forgotten that his kidneys are affected just as if his was the most serious case. Milk must be the basis of the diet, no meat in any form, not even broth, being allowed.

TINY MORENET.

The Little Republic That Lies Hidden on Belgium's Border. If there is an advantage in a country being large there is also an advantage in its being small, provided it is small enough. The republic of Moresnet, also called Kleins and sometimes Altenberg, owes its independent existence to the fact that it is so small that the European powers don't even take the trouble to annex it. Moresnet lies on the border of Belgium and Prussia between Verviers and Aix-la-Chapelle. It has an area of 1,400 acres and a population of 2,500. At one time the community belonged to Austria. It was later annexed by France and made the subject of quite a little dispute between Napoleon I. and the Prussians. But at the congress of Vienna in 1815 nobody seems to have thought of Moresnet, and to this day the country is an independent republic. For a time there was some dispute between Belgium and Prussia about the territory on account of the rich cadmium mine located there. But even this is now extinct. The republic has an administration of its own, composed of a burgo-master and ten members of a council. The burgo-master is both a Prussian and a Belgian subject. The inhabitants speak both German and French and decide individually whether they will perform military service for Prussia or for Belgium. Moresnet has not yet been heard from in the present conflict—Wall Street Journal.

Just Wanted a Peep. Representative Ashbrook of Ohio has a main for collecting rare coins. He maintains an index showing the location of practically every rare coin in the country and full information concerning it, a good deal as the Bertillon records of criminals are kept by the police. Ashbrook remarked one day that he wished congress would adjourn so that he could go to a point in Tennessee. "There's a man there with an 1804 dollar," he explained. "Could you buy it by mail?" he was asked. "I don't want to buy it," said Ashbrook. "I've got one. I just want to look at it."—New York Sun.

Radium at the Big Exposition. The United States bureau of mines is planning a comprehensive exhibit at the Panama exposition in San Francisco.
